- 2.30 - 3.30pm JACK DAVIES & THE BUSH CHOOKS
Jack Davies is a 20 year old rambler based in Fremantle, WA. The young folksinger weaves suburban Australia and intimate stories into thundering folk rock ballads. Jack recruited a few friends to form The Bush Chooks, an electrified take on his former folk tales. Just a year after forming, the band were nominated for three WAM awards and won Nannup Music Festival's Emerging Artist Award.
- 3.50 - 4.50pm MATT GRESHAM
Internationally acclaimed singer-songwriter Matt Gresham delivers a show-stopping mix of powerful vocals and soulful lyrics in a minimalist style. Matt delivers a powerful acoustic performance while pushing genre boundaries and pulling inspiration from RnB, Hip Hop and underground electronica. His aim? Crafting music that allows his audience to feel something honest, something real.
- 5.20 - 6.20pm BOBBY ALU
Alu's chilled out Pacific tunes are clever and catchy with an unmistakably beachy feel. This multi-instrumentalist has been all over the world this past year supporting the likes of Xavier Rudd, John Butler, Nahko and Trevor Hall. Alu's latest album, "Flow" received rave reviews from all angles. Not to be missed.
- 6.30pm MAJOR RAFFLE FUNDRAISER DRAWN
Drawn by Steve Wood - Festival Patron.
Tickets available from information tent or look for the blue dot army team.
